CAMERON NEWBAUER

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA HEAD COACH

THIRD YEAR AT FLORIDA | SEVENTH YEAR OVERALL

Cameron Newbauer completed his second season as the head coach of the University of Florida women's basketball program in 2018-19 and sixth season overall as head coach. Newbauer brings nearly 20 years of coaching experience at both the women's and men's Division I level.

You would be hard pressed to find someone whose personality oozes enthusiasm, excitement, and passion like that of Coach Cam.

Those traits – not to mention Newbauer's success on the basketball court – caught the attention of Florida Athletics Director Scott Stricklin, who named Newbauer the 10th head coach of the University of Florida women's basketball program in March of 2017.

The 2018-19 season marked a time of tremendous growth for the program as Newbauer saw eight Gators make their Florida debut on a roster that featured just two returners who had logged significant minutes the season before. Featuring the services of just one senior, guard Funda Nakkasoglu, Florida's newcomers accounted for over 70 percent of its minutes and 60 percent of its scoring. The new-look Gators gained great experience and the senior stalwart Nakkasoglu enjoyed a strong final season in Gainesville. In Newbauer's spread it, share it and shoot it offense, the Utah State transfer averaged a team-best 16.8 points per game on an impressive .460 mark from the floor and finished near the top of the SEC in three-pointers made (84), three-point percentage (.420) and points per game. Posting 24 double-figure scoring games, Nakkasoglu helped lead by example with her consistent play, game in and game out. Newbauer helped guide three freshman Kristina Moore, Ariel Johnson and Emanuely de Oliveira to successful rookie campaigns and furthered the development of five transfers including Kiki Smith and Danielle Rainey who enjoyed breakout seasons.

One of the least experienced teams in the always challenging SEC, the Gators equaled their conference win total from the previous season and were especially tough to beat at home at the O'Connell Center. Florida electrified the O'Dome crowd with an exciting win over Texas Tech in the SEC/Big 12 Challenge and picked up a pair of buzzer-beating wins vs. Alabama and Missouri in SEC play. Florida's 58-56 win over Missouri in mid-January was one of its best, as it erased a 14-point deficit and shocked the Tigers who featured one of the league's most talented rosters. The Gators finished strong by winning at Vanderbilt in their regular season finale and by defeating Ole Miss in the opening round of the SEC Tournament in Greenville. UF's 64-57 win over the Rebels marked Newbauer's first SEC Tournament victory.

After a record-setting season in 2017-18, Newbauer's offensive system continued to produce impressive results in year two as Florida knocked down 235 three-pointers, the second most in program history. Florida finished with 200 or more three-pointers for the second straight season, accomplishing the feat in back to back years for just the second time in program history.

The program continued its efforts to serve the community, making many stops at local schools, retirement homes and charitable events. For her efforts sophomore Stephanie Brower was named to the SEC Community Service team. The Gators continued to excel academically, registering a cumulative 3.17 GPA during the 2018 fall semester and for just the second time in the last 10 years, the women's basketball team featured four or more players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in consecutive seasons.

While he knew there would be work to do in establishing the foundation for his program, Newbauer's imprint on the 2017-18 Florida squad was immediate. It was fan-friendly. It was exciting. It was record-setting. The Gators connected with their fans like never before, greeting them in the stands after every game – home and away, win or lose. On the court, he brought an exciting style of basketball, as "Chuck it from the Cheap Seats" remained Newbauer's approach to shooting for every member on the team and the Gators listened, setting the school record for total three-pointers made in a season, average number of three-pointers made per game and made three-pointers in a game. The Gators reset the program record for threes in a game twice during the 2017-18 season and the new standard stands at 17 after the Nov. 23, 2017, performance against Savannah State.

Altogether it was an historic season shooting the three ball for Newbauer's Gators as they drained a program-best 249 triples. The Gators not only shot it but they shared it too as they were one of two teams to feature two players in the league's top 15 in terms of assists per game (Washington 3.6 apg, Anderson 3.1 apg). The Gators were one of seven SEC teams to average north of 14 assists per game (14.2). Under Newbauer's tutelage, then junior Funda Nakkasoglu quickly developed into one of the league's elite shooters. The Australian connected on 76 three-point attempts which were the second most in the SEC and sixth-most in program history and finished the season averaging a team-best 14.9 points per game.

Cameron Newbauer led Belmont to the NCAA Tournament each of his last two years at Belmont, falling 73-70 at Kentucky in 2017.

FLORIDA ATHLETICS DIRECTOR SCOTT STRICKLIN

"Cameron Newbauer brings energy, vision and an incredible work ethic to the University of Florida. In addition to developing well-coached teams, he's a hard-charger when it comes to recruiting and fan engagement. He's coached in our league with Georgia and coached in the Final Four with Louisville. As a head coach, Cameron's built the Belmont program and led them to back-to-back NCAA berths. I share his confidence that he can build Florida women's basketball into a conference and national contender, and look forward to Cameron, Sarah and their family joining the Gators."

QUOTING COACH CAMERON NEWBAUER

"It's the University of Florida. That's the excitement for me. A national brand. One of the most revered athletic programs in the nation.

"It's an incredible challenge. That's why I love it and want to embrace it. The Southeastern Conference is the best conference in the nation. All sports, let alone women's basketball. It's an absolute dream come true for me. I've worked and been blessed and fortunate to have opportunities come my way. This opportunity is going to take a lot of hard work and diligence, but it's one I'm proud to have in front of me."

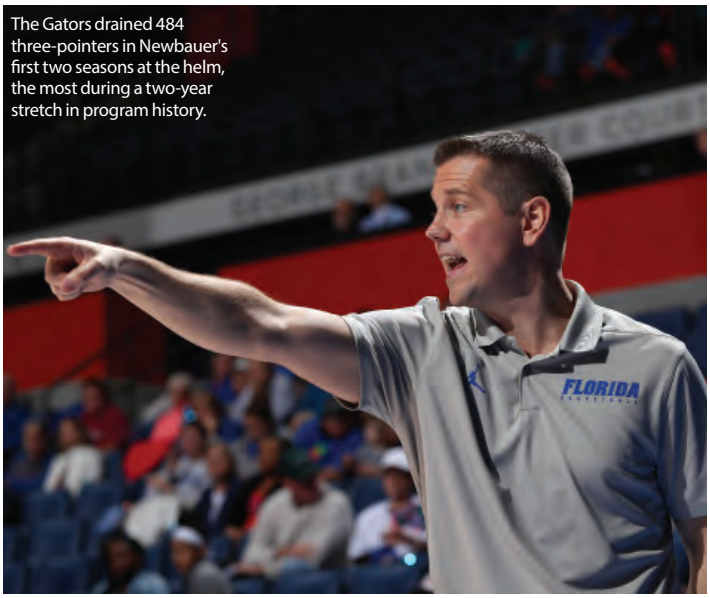
"We want to be a tough, hard-working group that really cares for each other. We're going to have fun. I want people to get to know us. We will welcome the community and want them to help build a tremendous environment."



The Gators drained 484 three-pointers in Newbauer's first two seasons at the helm, the most during a two-year stretch in program history.

Newbauer's inaugural season ended with just eight scholarship players suiting up for the final 13 games after injuries made for a lean roster that compiled an 11-19 record. Despite being undermanned, the Gators played 15 games decided by 10 points or less and eight of Florida's final nine regular-season games were against teams ranked in the top-25. Overall, 14 of UF's 26 opponents were teams that earned a postseason berth and Gators played 16 games against those programs, including two versus the national runner-up. The mighty Southeastern Conference lived up to its billing as one of the nation's top conferences. Not only did eight teams land a spot in the NCAA Tournament, it featured the national coach of the year, the national player of the year and the national freshman of the year – and all represented by a different SEC school.

Prior to his appointment with the Gators, Newbauer spent the previous four seasons (2013-17) as head coach at Belmont University, located in Nashville, Tennessee. Under Newbauer, the Bruins reached the postseason three times, including NCAA Tournament berths the last two seasons. Belmont won 35 of its last 36 games against Ohio Valley Conference opponents – a run that included league tournament games – and sported an overall 25-game win streak entering the 2017 NCAA Tournament before its 73-70 first-round loss at Kentucky. The Bruins were 51-15 overall and 35-3 in OVC action over his last two years, winning the OVC regular-season championship in 2017 and the league's tournament title the last two seasons. Newbauer, who compiled a 79-50 record at BU, was named the 2016-17 OVC Coach of the Year.

The 2016-17 Bruins won the OVC regular-season title for the first time in program history and captured the OVC Tournament championship for the second consecutive year. Following the 2015-16 season, Darby Maggard was named the program's first OVC Freshman of the Year, while Sally McCabe was honored as the team's inaugural recipient of the Defensive Player of the Year award. McCabe repeated the honor following the 2016-17 campaign, as she ranked among the nation's top 15 for blocked shots while becoming just the second player in league history to win the top defensive honor twice. During 2016-17, Belmont ranked in the top 20 nationally in 12 statistical categories, including third for rebound margin, 11th for assists per game, 13th for three-point field goals made, 14th for three-pointers made per game, 14th for three-point field goal percentage and 17th for scoring offense. Altogether, Newbauer produced seven first team All-OVC selection, three OVC All-Newcomer team members, two OVC Defensive Player of the Years and one OVC Freshman of the year.

In the classroom, the Bruins were equally as impressive as Newbauer helped guide the team to cumulative GPA's above 3.5 in all of his final three seasons, finishing top 15 nationally each season. Newbauer's Bruins participated in a series of service projects every month throughout the academic calendar. In August of 2015, Newbauer and Belmont Assistant Athletics Director/Senior Woman Administrator Betty Wiseman, partnered with Brentwood Baptist Church and took the 2015-16 team to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Over the 10 days, BU spoke with and shared their love of basketball with impoverished children in several favelas (Brazilian slums).

The Fort Wayne, Indiana, native has been a women's basketball assistant coach at Louisville and Georgia and a men's assistant at Siena College, while also working as a director of basketball operations for Georgia's men's team and at Siena.

In the year prior to becoming an NCAA Division I head coach, Newbauer joined head coach Jeff Walz at the University of Louisville as an assistant coach for the 2012-13 season and the Cardinal's magical NCAA run. Louisville compiled a 29-9 record, earned a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and marched into the national championship game after knocking off Middle Tennessee State, Purdue, California, Tennessee and the No. 1 overall seed Baylor.

Before taking the job at Louisville, Newbauer had a few runs at the University of Georgia, most recently serving five years as an assistant coach under Hall of Famer Andy Landers from 2007-12. In this role, Newbauer helped secure back-to-back top-10 recruiting classes, with the 2008 group ranked in the top five, followed by the top-10-ranked 2009 class. He joined Landers after spending the previous two seasons (2005-07) as the director of basketball operations for the men's team. Prior to his basketball operations role, Newbauer was a graduate manager for the men's program during the 2003-04 season.

Newbauer was an assistant coach with Siena College's men's team for the 2004-05 campaign under head coach Rob Lanier, who would later become an assistant coach (2007-10) under Billy Donovan at the University of Florida. Newbauer also served the role of Director of Basketball Operations from 2001-03 at Sienna.

Newbauer played one season of basketball at Madonna College in Livonia, Michigan, before transferring to Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne in his hometown. The native Hoosier earned his bachelor's degree from IUPU Fort Wayne in 2001 and later obtained a master's degree in Recreation and Leisure Studies from the University of Georgia in 2009.

Newbauer married the former Sarah Millender in May of 2011 on the University of Georgia's Herty Field and the couple has three young girls in Chloe, Millie and their newest addition Charli Jean, who was born in February of 2019.

2019-20 SEASON REVIEW
FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

2018-19 GATOR SEASON REVIEW

2018-19 AT A GLANCE

The 2018-19 season was the 45th varsity season in UF women's basketball history and Head Coach Cameron Newbauer's second season in the Swamp.

The 2018-19 season marked a time of tremendous growth for the program as Newbauer saw eight Gators make their Florida debut on a roster that featured just two returners who had logged significant minutes the season before. Featuring the services of just one senior, guard Funda Nakkasoglu, Florida's newcomers accounted for over 70 percent of its minutes and 60 percent of its scoring.

The new-look Gators gained great experience and the senior stalwart Nakkasoglu enjoyed a strong final season in Gainesville. In Newbauer's spread it, share it and shoot it offense, the Utah State transfer averaged a team-best 16.8 points per game on an impressive .460 mark from the floor and finished near the top of the SEC in three-pointers made (84), three-point percentage (.420) and points per game. Posting 24 double-figure scoring games, Nakkasoglu helped lead by example with her consistent play, game in and game out. With rotation consisting of five transfers and three freshmen, the Gators tested the waters and learned how to compete in the rigorous Southeastern Conference. A trio of transfers, Danielle Rainey, Kiki Smith and Zada Williams were particularly effective for UF as Smith emerged as the primary point guard, Rainey a three-point marksmen and Williams a consistent post presence.

One of the least experienced teams in the always challenging SEC, the Gators equaled their win total from the previous season and were especially tough to beat at home at the O'Connell Center. Florida electrified the O'Dome crowd with an exciting win over Texas Tech in the SEC Challenge and picked up a pair of buzzer-beating wins vs. Alabama and Missouri in SEC play. Florida's 58-56 win over Missouri in mid-January was one of its best, as it erased a 14-point deficit and shocked the Tigers who featured one of the league's most talented rosters. .

The Gators finished strong by winning at Vanderbilt in their regular season finale and defeating Ole Miss in the opening round of the SEC Tournament in Greenville. UF's 64-57 win marked Newbauer's first SEC Tournament victory.

After a record-setting season in 2017-18, Newbauer's offensive system continued to produce impressive results in year two as Florida knocked down 235 treys, the second most in program history. Florida finished with 200 or more treys as a team in each of Newbauer's first two seasons at the helm, accomplishing the feat in back to back seasons for just the second time in program history.

The Gators were one of the most prolific long-distance shooting teams in the league and in the nation, as they averaged 7.5 or more three-pointers in back to back seasons for the first time in program history.

Florida connected for double-digit three-pointers on 10 occasions and finished third in the SEC in three pointers made per game.

Tasked with one of the nation's most challenging schedules, UF battled 11 teams that qualified for the 2019 NCAA Tournament.

The program continued its efforts to serve the community, making many stops at local schools, retirement homes and charitable events. For her efforts sophomore Stephanie Brower was named to the SEC Community Service team.

The Gators continued to excel academically, registering a cumulative 3.17 GPA during the 2018 fall semester. For just the second time in the last 10 years, the program featured four or more players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in consecutive seasons as Funda Nakkasoglu, Danielle Rainey, Corey Staples and Stephanie Brower all garnered the accolade. In addition, freshman forward Kristina Moore earned a spot on the SEC First Year Academic Honor Roll.

HISTORY

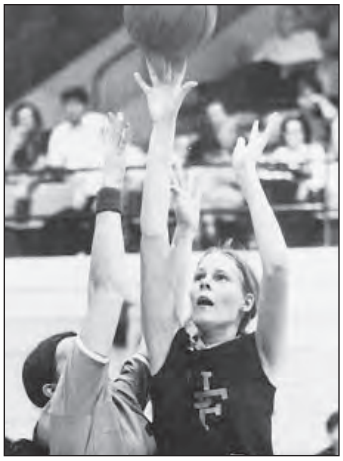
HISTORY OF FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL



Sue Chambers was the first woman to receive a basketball scholarship at UF.

Winter 1972 – Dr. Ruth Alexander, Donna Deutsch, Mimi Ryan and Linda Hall Thornton, with the assistance of Dr. Clifford Boyd, write the official proposal suggesting guidelines for an intercollegiate athletics program at the University of Florida.

March 1972 – The University of Florida's Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics unanimously approves the proposal with the effective date to be the 1972-73 school year.

1973-74 school year – The inaugural UF women's basketball squad is a club team and posts an 11-8 record under coach Darlene Wyrnak, who is a graduate assistant at the school. Members of that team include Valerie Bazarte, Susie Brownlee, Sue Chambers, Emma Gracey, Vicky Lavinsky, Cassie Macias, Kathy Wagner and Monte Wynn.

July 1974 – Dr. Paula Welch is hired as the Lady Gators first official coach and teaches in the Women's Physical Education Department.

Jan. 13, 1975 – Florida makes its varsity debut in Alligator Alley, but Valdosta State spoils the team's opener, defeating UF 57-47 despite 17 points from Sue Chambers.

Jan. 18, 1975 – Emma Gracey's 14 points leads the Lady Gators to their first-ever win, a 51-47 victory over Rollins College and sparks a seven-game winning streak.

July 21, 1975 – Guidelines for the Education Act of 1972, Title IX, is signed into law by U.S. President Gerald R. Ford.

Feb. 29, 1976 – The Lady Gators steal front page sports headlines in The Gainesville Sun, which reviews the squad's three-game sweep, capped by a 53-39 victory over Florida State, that gave UF its first state championship ever in women's team competition.

March 1976 – The team boards the UF University Athletic Association aircraft, "The Blue Goose," and travels to their first-ever Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) regional tournament held in Cleveland, Miss.

March 11, 1976 – UF downs Alabama 64-56 in the first round of the AIAW Regional III Tournament, but suffered their worst loss in program history later that same day, losing 132-49 to No. 4-ranked Mississippi College to end the season with a 16-8 record.

March 1976 – The College of Physical Education, Health and Recreation reorganize and eliminate dual teaching and coaching positions. Welch, who had planned to continue both, resigns as coach so she can devote more time to teaching and researching sport history.

1976-77 season – Cathy Davis, the trainer during the previous season, is hired to double up her responsibilities as trainer and coach, while completing her master's degree.

Nov. 13, 1976 – Freshman Quientella Bonner becomes the first six-footer to play for UF. She goes on to grab a UF-record 1,321 rebounds during her four-year career, a mark that still stands.

Jan. 8, 1977 – UF logs its first-ever victory over a Georgia team, when Bonner tallied 28 points with 31 rebounds in a 79-67 win against Georgia Southern. Bonner's 31-rebound effort still remains the Lady Gators' and the SEC's all-time single-game record.

Robin Pokoj, '85

"One of the funniest moments I can remember was when (coach) Mickie DeMoss was giving us a pep talk at half time in the lockeroom and stomping her foot on the floor. Her heel came off and flew across the lockeroom but she didn't want to crack a smile and spoil the moment so she hobbled over to the chalk board and continued to draw plays."

Feb. 26, 1977 – UF captures it second straight FAIAW Tournament with a 72-60 win over FSU.

1977-78 season – The team finishes third at the FAIAW tournament and goes 2-1 in the AIAW Regional, but suffers the first losing season in program history with a 12-14 record.

March 8, 1979 – The Lady Gators advance to the AIAW Region III Tournament as a result of their runner-up state finish, but lose to Mississippi 101-78 to end the season. Future Lady Gator coach Carol Ross scores six points and grabs a team-high nine rebounds in helping her Lady Rebels to victory.

April 1979 – Davis decides not to pursue the Lady Gators' coaching position, which is expanded into a full-time job. UF is 38-40 during her three-year tenure.

1993 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

In just her third season as Lady Gators Head Coach, Carol Ross was able to achieve a first in the program's 18-year history: earn a bid to the 48-team NCAA Tournament field. Led by senior captain LaTonya McGhee and junior guard Amanda Butler, Florida proved it belonged in postseason play. The Lady Gators opened the tournament on the road at Bowling Green State University on March 17 before a school-record crowd of 4,408 in Anderson Arena, which was also the third largest crowd attendance in a first round game. UF halted the Falcons' perfect 13-0 home record when McGhee banked in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining to give UF the thrilling 69-67 victory. Merlakia Jones led UF with 18 points and Bridget Pettis added 17 in the historic win. The Lady Gators traveled again in the second round, but came up short against postseason veteran Virginia in front of 5,740 Cavalier faithful. McGhee ended her career with a 14-point effort but more importantly helped lay the foundation for seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

1994 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Under the leadership of senior captain Amanda Butler, the Lady Gators reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. The Gators matched a school-record 22 wins and finished third in the SEC. Junior Merlakia Jones led UF offensively with 18.6 points per game, while DeLisha Milton averaged a double-double of 11.7 points and 11.5 rebounds during her freshman campaign. The Lady Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA West Region and were eligible to play host to their first round game, but were forced to travel to College Station, Texas, due to a Rod Stewart concert scheduled in the O'Connell Center. Florida rallied from a 14-point deficit against hosting Texas A&M and tied the score at 74 with 2:31 remaining after senior Kerry Cremeans caned a three-pointer off an assist from Butler. Takilya Davis later hit a jumper to give UF a 76-74 lead. With the score knotted at 76, the Gators turned the ball over with 21 seconds left and the Aggies converted two free throws with four ticks on the clock to end UF's season.

1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators earned their third consecutive bid to the NCAA Championship, one of just 22 schools to advance to "The Dance" for the third straight year. Led by captains DeLisha Milton and Crystal Parker, the team won a school-record 24 wins and finished fourth in the SEC. During the first round of the NCAA East Regional in Charlottesville, Va., UF played Radford and easily defeated the Highlanders 89-49. Both Merlakia Jones and Milton produced double-doubles and Dana Smith contributed three second-half treys. In the second round, and for the second time in three years, the Lady Gators faced a ranked Virginia squad on its home floor. The team was in position for an upset, but the Cavalier proved to be too strong, winning 72-67. UF was led by Merlakia Jones' 27 points, who became the first Gator to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau, ending her career with 2,001. Freshman Murriel Page showed signs of the All-American she would later develop into, averaging 10.6 points and 7.2 rebounds during her rookie season.

1996 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the fourth time in school history, the Lady Gators secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Led by team captains DeLisha Milton and Mahogany Hudson, Florida earned the No. 5 seed in the Mideast Region and became one of 16 teams to earn four straight NCAA bids. Crystal Parker also became the first player in Lady Gator history to be a member of four NCAA Tournament teams. UF ran into red-shot San Francisco in the opening round, falling 68-61, as the Lady Dons marched into the Sweet 16 by upsetting host Duke in the next game. Former Gator Amanda Butler broke into the coaching ranks this year, when Head Coach Carol Ross hired her as an assistant coach at the start of the season.

1997 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 1996-97 academic year marked the 25th season of women's varsity athletics at the University of Florida and the Lady Gator Basketball team ensured it would not be soon forgotten, staging the most impressive postseason run in program history. First-Team All-American DeLisha Milton, along with fellow co-captain Mahogany Hudson, led the Lady Gators a 24-9 overall record. As the No. 3 seed in the Mideast Region, UF was selected to play host to an NCAA Sub-Regional for the first time and responded, thumping Florida International, 92-68. Murriel Page scored 35 points with 14 rebounds in a 92-78 victory over Southern California and the Lady Gators marched into the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history. UF's magical run did not stop there, as UF routed fifth-ranked and second-seeded Louisiana Tech, 71-57, to advance to the Elite Eight. The historical season finally came to an end when second-ranked and top-seeded Old Dominion managed a 53-51 decision, as UF had three shots in the final 10 seconds that would have tied the score, but all just rolled around the rim.

1998 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Led by First-Team All-American Murriel Page and her fellow senior co-captains Mahogany Hudson and Dana Smith, the Lady Gators fought through an injury-plagued season to a 23-9 record, their fifth consecutive 20-win season and a second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. UF became one of just 12 schools to compete in each of the last six NCAA Tournaments, while earning its second consecutive trip to the Sweet 16. UF was rewarded for its outstanding regular-season play, being named one of 16 schools to host an NCAA Sub-Regional, which it did for the second straight year. In a bracket plagued with upsets (highlighted by No. 16-seed Harvard defeating No. 1-seed Stanford), the third-seeded Lady Gators couldn't continue the fun as they fell to No. 2-seeded Duke, 71-58.

1999 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators knew that matching the success of the past two seasons would be tough, especially after losing three key seniors. Even with an uphill battle, Florida, led by team captain Talatha Bingham, was still strong enough to earn its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament bid - one of just 11 teams to compete in the "Big Dance" every year since 1993. UF was also one of a record-setting eight SEC schools to secure a bid. The Lady Gators would not dance long, however, dropping a frustrating 87-84 overtime decision to Arizona in the opening round.

2001 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 2000-01 season was one of the most exciting in school history, as the Lady Gators tied a school record with 24 wins and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains Tombi Bell, Misty Knight and Tamara Stocks were fueled all season by what they felt was a snub from the 2000 event and led Florida to a second-place tie in the Southeastern Conference, winning a program-best 11 league games. This was the eighth overall trip to the "Big Dance" for the Gators and their third time playing host to the opening rounds.

2002 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the ninth time in 10 years, Carol Ross successfully led the Lady Gators to the NCAA Tournament. Stunningly, it would be her last because six days after the final horn sounded on Florida's opening-round loss, Ross stepped down as winningest head coach in school history, with a record of 247-121. The team was led by senior tri-captains Monique Cardenas, Lindsey DeLoach and Brandi McCain.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Head Coach Carolyn Peck guided UF to the greatest one-year turnaround in school history, bouncing back from a 9-19 record the previous season to a 19-11 record and an NCAA Tournament bid. Captains Vanessa Hayden, Sarah Lowe and Kelly Stevenson led the Gators to a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round for the sixth time in school history. UF overcame 16,000 deafening New Mexico fans at The Pit with an opening-round 68-56 win against the hosting Lobos, before falling in the next game to Baylor, which went on to win the NCAA title the following season.

2006 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Fueled by two of the biggest upset wins in program history, the Gators earned their way back into the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Senior tri-captain Sarah Lowe hit the game-winning free throws with 3.2 seconds remaining in overtime to help the Gators upset No. 2 LSU, 79-78, in UF's final home game. A few nights later, senior tri-captain Brittany Davis poured in a career-high 29 points to help stun No. 5 Tennessee in the regular-season finale, as UF became just the second unranked team ever to defeat the Lady Vols in Knoxville. The Gators, who raced out to the best 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15-game starts in program history en route to a 21-9 overall record, received the No. 6 seed in the NCAA Albuquerque Region but dropped their opening-round game to New Mexico, 83-59.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

With senior Sha Brooks leading the backcourt and senior Marsahe Dotson patrolling the frontcourt, the Gators won four games against nationally-ranked teams, including three upset victories, and earned their 12th NCAA Tournament appearance. Amanda Butler became the sixth woman in NCAA history to play for and later coach the same team to a top-25 ranking, as the 2008-09 squad ranked as high as No. 9 in the Feb. 9 AP Poll. Newcomer Steffi Sorensen led a record-setting three-point shooting display, as the Gators set new marks with 221 three-pointers and hitting them with a 36.5 percent accuracy mark. UF downed Temple, 70-57, in the NCAA First Round and tied a program record with its 24th win of the season. The Gators fell in the next round to eventual champion Connecticut, which played on its home court and raced to an undefeated season.

2012 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

A veteran team that featured five seniors helped the 2011-12 Gators earn the program's 18th postseason appearance in the last 20 years, making its 13th trip to the NCAA Championship. Florida, which compiled a 20-13 overall record and the 12th 20-win season in Gator history, upset No. 16/19-ranked Ohio State in the first round before falling to top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Baylor. The NCAA second-round appearance was the eighth in program history and the Gator's first since 2009, also the last time Florida competed in the Big Dance. As a team, Florida held opponents to 60.8 points per game - the second-fewest in a season in the 38-year history of the program. The 1983-84 squad held its foes to 59.1 points per game. Opponents shot 38.3 percent from the floor, the lowest since the 2000-01 Gators limited foes to a 36.9 percent clip. Florida also sported a +5.3 rebound margin, its best since the 2000-01 team held a +7.9 margin. Junior forward Jennifer George, who was voted by the league's coaches as a first-team All-SEC performer, led UF in scoring (12.8 ppg) and rebounding (8.8 rpg), an effort that also ranked second in the SEC (in SEC games and all games). Senior Jordan Jones did a bit of everything for the Gators during 2011-12, contributing 11.2 points, in addition to 3.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.1 steals, while hitting 67-of-198 treys (33.8%).

2014 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Seniors Jaterra Bonds and Lily Svete headlined a very curious 2013-14 Florida women's basketball squad that entered the season with just nine healthy players after redshirt-sophomore Viktorija Dimaite re-tore the same left ACL that held her out of the entire 2012-13 campaign. Redshirt-junior Kayla Lewis was the only member of her athletic class and was joined by six sophomores, only two of whom where 'true' second-year players. Despite suiting up just eight players for the majority of the season, this 2014 band of Gators showed the grit and fight of their seventh-year head coach Amanda Butler and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament as the No. 11 seed. UF faced its largest deficit of the game (12 points) with just over 15 minutes remaining, but outscored No. 6 Dayton in the second half, 54-37, to earn a date with No. 3 and host Penn State. UF was picked to finish 10th in the SEC during preseason polls by the league's coaches and media, but battled to place fifth and won 20 games for the fourth consecutive season.

FLORIDA'S NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAMS

2016 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

While Florida's roster featured five seniors, it was truely a balenced effort that helped the Gators earn the No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament. On the 13-player roster... 10 Gators averaged at least 12 minutes of playing time per game; 10 Gators averaged at least 4.9 points per game; 11 Gators made at least one three-pointer; 11 Gators started at least one game during their respective Gator careers; 9 DIFFERENT Gators were UF's leading scorer in a game this season; 7 DIFFERENT Gators were UF's leading rebounder in a game this season; and 6 DIFFERENT Gators scored 20 or more points in a game this season. UF ranked No. 16 in the nation in scoring offense (77.4 ppg), however, the team's leading scorers - junior Ronni Williams and freshman Eleanna Christinaki - averaged just 11.1 and 10.4 points per game, respectively. Sophomore Haley Lorenzen averaged 9.3 points, while senior Cassie Peoples and junior Simone Westbrook were close behind at 8.8 and 8.0 per game, respectively. Florida was picked to finish 12th of 14 teams in the preseason SEC Poll by coaches and media and tied for fourth place in the final standings. The No. 5-seeded Gators played No. 12-seeded UAlbany (NY) in the NCAA opening round at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, N.Y., where Florida had a comfortable 37-22 lead at halftime, but somewhere between the break and the start of the second half, the Gators lost their shooting touch. UAlbany outscored the Gators 19-7 in the fourth quarter when Florida hit just one field goal after Lorenzen put the Gators up 57-46 with 7:49 left. The Gators didn't score again until senior January Miller's basket with 0.4 seconds left. Florida shot just 20 percent in the second half (6 of 30) and missed 11 consecutive shots in the fourth quarter as the Great Danes went on a 15-0 run. In the end, the Gators lost an opportunity to keep their remarkable season alive, falling to the Great Danes, 61-59.

E* - Elite Draft. (The 1997 WNBA Draft was the first in history of the league, and teams selected players in three different stages.

On Jan. 22, 1997, the league assigned a total of 16 players - two to each team - in no particular order. On Feb. 27, 1997, the WNBA held its Elite Draft, where two additional players were assigned to each team, again in no particular order.)

^ The final official score of the Albany-Florida game remains 61-59 based on the final progressive team totals of the official scorebook, even though final statistics indicate 61-58. The mistake was made by the official scorer in awarding a free throw to Florida that did not occur. The score remains 61-59 because Rule 224.3 states: "When all three officials leave the visual confines of the playing area the end of the game, the officials' jurisdiction has ended and the score has been approved."

2019-20 NCAA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL RULE CHANGE

Shot Clock

The NCAA Playing Rules Oversight Panel approved resetting the shot clock in women's basketball to 20 seconds after an attempted field goal hits the rim and the offensive team rebounds the ball in the front court. The rule is effective for the 2019-20 season in all three divisions.

NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee members made the proposal in an effort to continue to enhance the pace of the game. It reasoned that a full 30-second shot clock is not needed since the offensive team is already in the front court after securing the rebound.

Also, when the shot clock is below 20 seconds, it will reset to 20 seconds when the defensive team commits a single personal foul or when the ball is intentionally kicked or hit with a fist in the offensive team's frontcourt. When the shot clock is at 20 seconds or above, it will not be reset in these situations.

Conduct

The panel approved a rule that if a player receives one technical foul and one unsportsmanlike foul in the same game, the player would be ejected. This rule is effective for the 2019-20 season.

Also, the offended team will be awarded the ball for a throw-in at the division line when the opponents have been assessed a player/substitute or bench technical foul when play resumes.

Experimental Rule

NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee members previously approved an experimental rule to use the international 3-point line for postseason events, excluding the NCAA championships in each division.

Significant Rule Differences between NCAA Division I Men's & Women's Basketball

- NCAA women's basketball games will be played in four 10-minute quarters.
- Extra periods shall be five minutes each in length with a one-minute intermission before each.
- Teams will reac h the bonus and shoot two free throws on the fifth team foul in each quarter.
- In the four-quarter format, team fouls reset to zero at the start of each quarter. However, if a team reaches the bonus in the fourth quarter, that team would remain in the bonus during any additional overtime periods.
- Reduce the time permitted to replace a disqualified player from 20 to 15 seconds.

FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

The Basketball Complex has undergone a few major 'facelifts' since its opening in October of 2001, most recently during the summer of 2013 when updated floor-to-ceiling graphics, display cases and video displays were installed throughout the building.

Florida's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility opened in October of 2001, with the initial $10 million securing the two-story, 47,505-square foot facility highlighted by full-sized practice courts for both the Gator men's and women's teams, in addition to the coaches' offices and team locker rooms.

FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

During the summer of 2015, the weight room in Florida's Basketball Complex underwent a $1 million upgrade that doubled the size to 3,000 square feet and added a fueling station.

The Terry Frost Women's Practice Court features six baskets, Conner (Uniforce with NIKE Grind) wood floor and observation/video taping balcony. As part of the 2007 facelift, a Coach's Command Center with internal AV equipment is housed behind thick plex along the wall of the practice court for coaches and players to watch immediate on-court video.

JORDAN BRAND AND THE UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

Jordan Brand added another established collegiate program to its roster, welcoming the University of Florida to the family in December of 2017. Florida is just the fourth collegiate football program to represent the Jumpman and the brand's first college program in the Southeastern Conference.

The partnership includes the football team and the men's and women's basketball teams. The Gators' uniforms began to feature the Jumpman logo at the start of the 2018-19 season.

The Gators are one of just six women's basketball programs in the nation to be sponsored by Jordan Brand.

Continuing to add to a roster that represents greatness, the Gators' football program has won three national championships, eight conference titles and has produced three Heisman Trophy winners. Additionally, the Gators basketball programs have also achieved greatness, with the men's team making 18 NCAA Tournaments, five Final Fours and winning two NCAA Championships. Meanwhile, the UF women's team has made 15 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Jordan Brand now has a presence in five Division I conferences — the SEC, Big 10, Big 12, ACC and the Big East.

EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center - Florida's game-day facility - underwent a $64.5 million renovation that re-opened its doors for activities in mid-December 2016.

As part of the renovation, Exactech Arena now features chair-back seating throughout the lower bowl, a state-of-the-art center court-hung scoreboard, new sound system and amenity upgrades in the new concourse areas.

The first Gator women's basketball game was played in Exactech Arena on December 28, 2016 versus Southeastern Louisiana - a 102-51 Florida victory!

Florida played its first 12 games of the 2016-17 season on the road during renovations.

A RENOVATED HOME WITH A NEW NAME

The UF Board of Trustees voted to approve a collaboration that will allow Exactech, a local-bred medical device company at the forefront of joint replacement, and the O'Connell Center to share the marquee at the home for Gators athletics since 1981. The agreement brings together two Gainesville-based organizations with more than 30 years each of collaborating on education, innovation and health care.

Exactech's naming agreement is broken into two phases; a 10-year, $5.9 million pledge with an additional five-year, $3.5 million option on the back end. The multi-million dollar value of the contract was instrumental in helping UF, which owns the O'Connell Center, and the University Athletic Association, the arena's prime tenant, proceed with the ambitious $69.8 million renovation of the facility that is scheduled for completion in December. Fox Sports represented UF in helping broker the agreement.

Still based in Gainesville, Exactech has more than 700 employees who design, develop, manufacture and distribute innovative orthopedic implants and surgical instrumentation for patients undergoing shoulder, knee, hip and spine surgery.

HISTORY OF EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

A record-sellout crowd of 12,222 fans packed the O'Connell Center on Feb. 11, 2001 to watch the Gators battle Tennessee. It remains the largest crowd ever to watch a regular-season women's basketball game on any level - college, pro or international - inside the state of Florida.

Exactech Arena is the Game-Day Home of Gator Basketball

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center opened Dec. 30, 1980 and is home to Gator basketball, gymnastics swimming & diving and volleyball.

After a major renovation that began in the spring of 2016, the Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center held its first basketball game on Dec. 21, 2016 following a $69.8 renovation. The enhancements includes permanent chairback seating throughout the entire arena, new premium seating options, a center-hung scoreboard and entirely revamped service level, including locker rooms.

The 10-year naming agreement with Gainesville based Exactech provided $5.9 million in funding toward the renovation project.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center has been the site of all Gator Basketball games since its opening in 1981.
